

RLCA Dress Code 2011-12*

General Information

In selecting the RLCA dress code, it has been our desire to find clothing that looks uniform and neat while providing good quality at a reasonable price. We have selected vendors able to provide a number of options for our students.

Students need to select khaki slacks, skirts, jumpers or shorts from the items featured on our school website*. (Uniform sizes start at size 4. Preschool students still wearing toddler sizes may choose an alternate brand for the khaki uniform items.)

All shirts are purchased from our vendor through our school website. Students have the following options available for purchase:

- royal blue long or short-sleeved polo shirts
(Black and purple are also allowed for secondary students)
 - purple, black, or royal blue sweatshirts (for extra warmth in the classroom)
 - purple school-logo t-shirts for jeans days
- Belts will be worn with any items with belt loops.

RLCA occasionally has a special jean day. For these days, students may wear a school-logo t-shirt in place of their regular polo shirt. Students will wear athletic shoes and socks every day. In the classroom, students may wear either the uniform sweatshirts or uniform jackets for extra warmth. When playing outside, students may wear non-uniform jackets. Secondary students taking PE will wear the PE uniform available through our school website.

If a child cannot wear uniform options due to health reasons or fit, please contact the office for guidance. We do have some options to assist you. Without a pre-approved, written exemption students will be required to wear specific uniform items listed on the school's webpage.

Important ordering information:
French Toast Brand – School Code QS44DVK
Lands' End Brand - School code: 900120577

Special note: French Toast, Lands' End and JC Penney often have great sales on school uniforms. You can receive notice of those sales by registering on the individual company website.

* This is a summary of the dress code for the 2011-12 school year. The complete dress code will be available in the RLCA Parent-Student Handbook.